THE CONVENTION OF THE REPUBLICANS OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, WILL MEET IN THE CITY OF RALEIGH, ON THE SEVENTH DAY OF JULY, 1880, FOR THE PURPOSE OF NOMINATING TWO ELECTORS AT-LARGE, AND STATE OFFICERS. BY ORDER OF STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Late General News.

A gentleman named Reeve writes to the National Republican urging the Hon. Horace Maynard of Tennssee as a candidate for Vice President. He says that he has always been a Republican ever since he ceased to be a Whig, and that his record is that of a statesmart.

Bishop Simpson, of the M. E. Church of the United States preached to 8,000 people in Music Hall in Cincinnati. His theme was the growth and ultimate triumph of Christianity. As he showed the decline of all other other systems and their inadequacy to the wants of man, and pictured the glorious achievements of Christianity, he so carried the sympathy of his hearers that "amens" were mingled with spontaneous applauses. The entire congregation joined in the singing, which was led by two cornets and accompanied by the great organ, producing a grand effect.

Jack Wilson, a colored man in Georgia, has a farm of 1,000 acres all paid for. He runs eleven plows. The Rev. David Alexander, also of Georgia, has a large farm all paid for and making a large profit.

The Whittaker examination still goes on at West Point. No result.

The New York Herald of Monday gives Grant 291 and all others 313, 604 being elected. There are 152 to be elected, making 756. The independent estimate is Grant only 255, all others 349.

The Star has been all along denouncing "A Fool's Errand" written by Judge Tourgee, but now says, "We never read the book through, and relied upon what others said more than upon our own knowledge." It will occur to literary men that it is rather an extraordinary proceeding to attempt to criticise a book without first reading it.

The Edenton Clarion notices the death of Capt. Charles Gratiot Manning, the Collector of Customs at that port, aged 79. He was bred to the sea, but having been wrecked on the coast of Texas, settled there, and served in the war of the "lone star" for its independence. Returning to Edenton where he was born about 1844, he was occupied in teaching, until at the close of the war he was appointed Collector of Customs, which place he occupied at his death. He was an honest man, a faithful official, and a Christian gentleman.

The question of Vice President is looming up. Some of the Tennesseeans are pressing Horace Maynard; thirty citizens of Galveston, including Gen. E. M. Pease, have addressed a long circular "to the Republican Party throughout the United States" urging the nomination of ex-Gov. Edmund J. Davis; and the Florida State Republican Convention which sat at Gainesville on the 10th, recommended Judge Settle.

HOAR'S SPEECH ON KELLOGG

Senator Hoar has make a very strong speech on the Kellogg case, it being mainly a legal argument on the res adjudicata aspect of it. What he said of the political aspect of the case ss striking:—"The voice which it is sought to stiffle," said he, "is that of the last representative of loyalty from the states recently in rebellion. Other Senators from the aceding states tell of the blows they struck at their country's life, and show the commissions they held from those who led the opposition against their country's flag." Referring to the personal attacks upon Mr. Kellogg, he bore witness to the excellence of his administration as Governor of Louisiana. He had found the state's credit weak and left it strong; he had raised the state bonds from 25 to 75; he had found the Treasury bankrupt and left it with a surplus, and had added not one dollar to the public debt. His Democratic successor had sunken to repudiation. Mr. Hoar then took up the arguments by which the Democrats had sought to overthrow the doctrine of res adjudicata, and showed how revolutionary and without precedent was the assertion that every Senator held his seat at the will of a party majority, and that the title to his seat could never be conclusively determined by the Senate. The Democrats had gone so far as to claim that the decision as to title could be made by the state itself and be changed by fraudulent and forcible state revolutions. In this way they had disregarded the constitution, which made the Senate the judge of its members' qualifications. The Senate's decisions must be final. The case of every senator whose seat has been contested served as a precedent in favor of the doctrine of res adjudicata, for in only two instances had an attempt been made to reopen such a case, and in each instance the Senate had decided that the Senate's first judgment had been final. So the question had been settled, if the Senate could settle anything, and all the eminent southern Senators of the past were recorded in opposition to the views now supported by the committee. Not only were these views opposed by the Senate's unbroken usage, but also by the course pursued for 600 years in the English houses of Parliament."

REDEMPTION OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.

[From the Washington World.]

In November last Secretary Sherman began to apply the surplus revenue to the purchase of our outstanding six per cent. bonds. Of these about $18,000,000 are redeemable in December 1880 and $250,000,000 in June 1881. Since this policy was inaugurated about $50,000,000 of six per cents. have been redeemed and cancelled, involving a saving of $3,000,000 per annum in interest. The rapid increase of the revenue during the last few weeks has enabled the Secretary to increase the rate of redemption to $10,000,000 per month. As the revenue now averages over a million a day, it is probable that the bonds will be redeemed still more rapidly.

Of five per cent. bonds outstanding about $505,000,000 mature in May 1881. It is doubtful whether it will pay to refund in bonds of lower interest, in view of their rapid absorption by the Treasury. Thus we see our great national bonded debt gradually fading out of sight. At the present rate of redemption about $120,000,000 per annum can be applied to this purpose. In six or seven years, then, we may expect to see all our bonds bearing high rates of interest withdrawn from the market.

The Greenbackers, in their craze, are continually growling at the vast accumulation of coin in the Treasury. They would scatter it to the four winds in order to inaugurate their own particular boom of universal bankruptcy. They are, however, no longer powerful for evil. Another class are beginning to attack the policy of holding this vast reserve to insure the public credit. A speculative commercial journal of New York hints that the money in the Treasury should all be paid out in the redemption of bonds so that capitalists finding a scarcity of government securities, shall be compelled to invest in railroad bonds.

In another article we have shown the enormous rate of railway construction now in progress, a rate far surpassing that of our most active construction years in the past. This movement is in danger of being overdone. It is bad policy to withdraw an undue proportion from the floating capital of the country for investment in real estate. This was one of the precipitating causes of our late financial difficulty. If then our speedy extinction of the public debt is to play into the hands of a gigantic and dangerous speculation we shall feel less gratification at the result.

The direction of the Bureau Veritas has just published the following statement of maritime disasters reported during the month of March, 1880, concerning all flags: Sailing vessels reported lost—42 English, 14 American, 12 Norwegian, 10 German, 7 French, 5 Dutch, 3 Danish, 3 Italian, 3 Portugese, 2 Spanish, 1 Austrian, 1 Swedish, 1 Turkish, three, of which the nationality is unknown; total 107. In this number are included 14 vessels reported missing. Steamers reported lost—9 English, 2 French; total 11. In this number is included 1 steamer reported missing.

Those wishing the POST must certainly pay for it.

FROM WASHINGTON.

DEMOCRATS WAVERING ON THE QUESTION OF ADJOURNMENT—SOME TALK ABOUT THE PRESIDENTIAL CANVASS—NORTH CAROLINA'S SHARE IN THE RIVER AND HARBOR BILL.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 13, 1880.

WILL CONGRESS MAKE AN EARLY ADJOURNMENT.

To-days work in Congress will leave the appropriation bills in such a shape that Congress can adjourn by June 1st, if it will. For some time there has been a general desire both among Democrats and Republicans to get away by June 1st at least, and a corresponding inclination to avoid any subject, like the tariff for instance, that might lead to a general debate. The leading motive for this effort to hurry away from Washington was in most cases, an inclination to get home and attend to district politics.

But, lately there seems to be a change in the Democratic mind. That party had made many promises of the wonderful things they would do in the way of legislation. They were going to review the tariff laws from beginning to end. There was to be no end to relief they were going to bestow upon the industrial interests of the country. Election laws were to be amended. A new law regulating the count for the President was to be passed. And last and by no means least we were to have a glorious, Democratic, spick and span new financial legislation which was to make every poor man rich, pay the debts of nation, states and cities, and set every idle man at work.

DARE THE DEMOCRATS ADJOURN.

An early adjournment means a padlocked Democratic mouth, and a fear to meet the Republicans on any one of the issues they once promised us so much from. Hence then there is a growing feeling that they will but own to the whole country that they have nothing to go to people with, if they simply pass the appropriation bills and avoid every one of the issues they have raised. Democratic Senators and Members are now getting letters from all parts of the country protesting against an adjournment until the tariff laws have been amended, and some effort made to redeem their outstanding pledges of practical legislation. These letters also warn them that a hasty adjournment would be a confession of weakness in the controlling party which would not only injure it, but it would at the same time increase the confidence of the Republicans in a corresponding degree. So once more the Democrats are in a state of indecision.

NEITHER GRANN NOR BLAINE.

The bolts by the Grant delegates in Pennsylvania and New York, who refuse to be bound by their instructions, and who say they will vote in convention for Blaine, together with the war of the factions in Illinois, more particularly the split in Chicago, now makes it seem almost certain that Grant will not be nominated at the coming national convention. It seems equally probable that the Grant faction will prevent Blaine from being nominated. It has been urged that Hon. E. B. Washburne would be the coming man. That idea is now hardly worth considering, for the Washburne folks by participating as seconds and bottle-holders to the Blaine men at Chicago have roused against them the fiercest animosity of the friends of General Grant.

SHERMAN THE COMING MAN.

The country has had enough of "dark horses," or third-rate men. Sherman is not only almost as strong as Grant or Blaine, but he would be acceptable to the Grant men, while Blaine never would be. Hence, it would not be at all surprising to see Mr. Sherman nominated on the second ballot in Chicago. Indeed, as the Presidential canvass now looks, it is the most probable solution of that political problem. The Secretary's friends, all over the country are greatly elated over the increased brightness of his prospects.

SENATOR BEN HILL

Is making a two days speech on the Kellogg case. It exhausts the Democratic side of the argument; and it is as sophistical as it is long. The Republicans will not consume more than two days in presenting their side of the question at issue, and will then urge the Democrats to an early vote. It is a clean case of steal, and beyond putting the Democrats on record on all the points involved there is no use in spending much time over it.

SHERMAN IN NEW YORK.

That was a most notable meeting of the merchants of New York last Tuesday evening to do honor to John Sherman. His address was received with the utmost enthusiasm. I want to quote one short sentence here:

"Taxes: that three years ago yielded barely enough revenue to meet current expenses, in March last yielded, without increase in rate, a surplus revenue of $14,000,000; in April, $12,000,000; and will no doubt, during the present year, yield over $100,000,000. Our four per cent. bonds now sell at a higher rate than our six per cent. bonds averaged for a period of several years.—Surely, under such conditions, we may fairly congratulate each other, in the language of your toast, on 'the financial prosperity of our country.'"

An increased revenue without increased taxation; and all brought about by following the advice of the Secretary of the Treasury, and in spite of the opposition of the dominant party.—Every Republican should be proud of that record.

The river and harbor bill has been reported to the House and ordered printed. The total amount provided for is about $8,500,000, of which North Carolina has her due proportion. I will send the items in my next letter.

A REAL TREAT.—At the Tileston Upper Room, the Rev. A. D Mayo of Boston, gave an off-hand and pleasant talk on education. He is the editor of the National Journal of Education, a very valuable publication. He is nobody's agent, but is traveling over parts of the south for his own information. His life and capacities are entirely devoted to the cause of education. He stated at the beginning of his remarks, that there were 10,000,000 children of school age in the United States: only one-half of whom were receiving the benefits of public instruction. He thought that the education of these young persons was the greatest and most important question before the American people.

Dr. Waite's IRON TONIC

Is a Preparation of IRON and CALISAYA BARK, in combination with the Phosphates, Endorsed by the Medical Profession, and recommended by them for Dyspepsia, General Debility, Female Diseases, Want of Vitality, &c., &c.

Manufactured by the Dr. Harter Medicine Co., No. 213 N. Main Street, St. Louis.

Gentlemen:—Some three months ago I began the use of Dr. HARTER'S IRON TONIC, upon the advice of many friends who knew its virtues. I was suffering from general debility to such an extent that my business was fast being neglected. I had no appetite, and was unable to sleep. At this time I began the use of the tonic, was soon relieved of constipation and sinking chills. At this time I began the use of your IRON TONIC, from which I realized almost immediate and wonderful results. The old energy returned and I found that my natural force was not permanently abated. I have used three bottles of the TONIC. Since using it I have done twice the labor that I ever did in the same time during my illness, and have not had a sick day. Words cannot express my gratitude for the benefit I have derived from it. I thought never before enjoyed. If the TONIC had not done the work, I know not what. I give it the credit.

Most gratefully yours,

THE WILMINGTON POST.

W. P. CANADAY, Ed'r & Prop'r.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 16, 1880.

The Knoxville Chronicle pays a very high compliment to the Republican candidate for Governor of Tennessee, Hon. Alvin Hawkins. He was a Bell and Everett elector in 1860, and was placed on the supreme bench by Gov. Brownlow in 1865. He is a lawyer of great ability, and no man cares more for right for its own sake than he. He is as pure and good a man in private life as he is in politics. He is a Republican of most unflinching steadfastness, and always has been, but at the same time he is a man of a conservative way of thinking, and has done nothing radically partisan in his life to prevent Democrats of conservative tendencies from supporting him. He will get many of this class, besides polling the entire strength of his party. He is a man of large figure, fine personal appearance, and is about 50 years of age —in the very prime of his manhood. He comes from a noted family, several of its members having represented their districts in Congress. Since his retirement from official life he has been practicing his profession with great success.

DISGRACEFUL POLITICS.

We have taken occasion several times to expose the disreputable conduct of the N. Y. Times and its agents in the south in opposing Secretary Sherman. The normal attitude of this delectable sheet is that Mr. Sherman and everybody who supports him in the south are unprincipled tricksters, and there are few bad qualities which it does not attribute to them. When the state Republican convention of Mississippi was approaching a correspondent who signs himself "H. C." made his way to Jackson, Miss., to fight Sherman. On May 3d, this veracious fellow informed the Times that "their (the supporters of Sherman) tactics have been the old familiar ones of what may be called polite bribery and a shameless abuse of official power." He adds that "Mr. James Hill, the collector of internal revenue in Jackson," is the head rascal, and that he promised all the delegates who would vote for Sherman "free board, eating and drinking of the best, and if necessary a few dollars to take away with them." The next day this correspondent did not seem to find much news, but confined himself to bragging. The third day after his arrival he chronicles a "Grant Victory in Mississippi," which consisted as follows:—that a convention which was really in a majority for Sherman was bulldozed by Grant tools scraped up from other states, and considerably demoralized, but finally selected a majority of the delegates to Chicago favorable to Sherman, and adjourned sine die. Whereupon the Grant men held a meeting and passed resolutions and had a boisterous row and broke up, dissolved for want of cohesion, went into solution somewhat in the manner of unslacked lime put in water.

"H. C." relates the events of the above day with melancholy satisfaction. He laments that Mr. James Hill, colored, the internal revenue collector actually invited some delegates to his office where they "were entertained with free and unlimited whisky," but that getting the delegates drunk did not wean them from Sherman. Just at this time when everybody was getting more and more for Sherman, some Grant man bethought himself of drumming up bulldozers from some of the adjoining states. "General Fitzpatrick from Vicksburg arrived first, then ex-Gov. Pinchback came in just by accident all the way from New Orleans, and then Tom. Ochiltree happened along from Texas, just by accident, and lastly, "H. C." says, "a northern Republican who was in the town" had arrived. This brilliant collection of patriots called a caucus, drummed up a crowd of outsiders, marched into the hall where the convention was held, passed resolutions endorsing Grant and then went over to the office of "Mr. James Hill, colored, revenue collector," to drink more of his "unlimited whisky." "H. C.," we suppose, went along in the person of the "northern Republican who was in town," as we infer from the fact that the remainder of the proceedings partook so largely of the character of that genial black-guard.

In one of the southern cities another correspondent of this sheet, which has made itself a by word of reproach for all that is mean and despicable in its attacks on Mr. Sherman, and who had been guilty of totally misrepresenting certain local political matters of that state, was addressed by a clear-headed Sherman man in the following language:

"Jones, what in the world can be your motive in stating in your correspondence to the Times these falsehoods about our convention and the result of the selection of delegates?"

Jones—"Oh! don't you know that I am the correspondent of the N. Y. Times?"

Republican—"But you are not paid for lying about Sherman and his friends are you?"

Jones—"I tell you again that I am the correspondent of the N. Y. Times, and I have no further explanation to make."

The inference is inevitable that agents of this sheet have been sent to every state where it was thought that anything could be made by misrepresenting Sherman and his supporters.

That sheet was disgraced the other day by containing such phrases as, "he [Sherman] merely uses the language of a baffled political trickster, about whom the only mistake made by the Times was in trying him by the standards recognized among honest men." Such language from a journal which affects respectability, concerning a statesman of unquestioned probity and character, has not been known in this country, even from the lowest specimen of journalism, since the vicious and malevolent Frenau was throwing scandal around the name of President Washington.

A newspaper, as well as a man can lose character in consequence of base conversation and scandal-monging. The filthy and debased career of the Times for the last few months, in regard to the Secretary of the Treasury, aided by its herd of scandal mongers scattered over the country has degraded and weakened the confidence of the public in a journal from which better things were expected, but which now is rapidly acquiring the character of a chronic sorehead and falsifier.

THE APPROACHING EVENT.

There is no longer any doubt but as we steadily by the swinging of the pendulum go nearer and nearer towards the 2nd of June, that great day for which other days were made, the smoke is somewhat clearing away, and we can see with a clearer light. Speculations are to some extent assuming the garb and manner of facts. It is now well enough settled that there will be no nomination made at Chicago on the first voting. Those of us who have been wading on, in support of Mr. Sherman, through that filth of animadversion which has disgraced the canvass, can now see that he will enter the Convention with an inevitable, well compacted strength, which cannot be ignored, and that the hoarse notes of boisterous bragging and bulldozing are sinking down to more level intonations.

It is now evident that the scheme of instruction to delegates, which came tumbling in upon us in big billows of sounding phrases, are to a certain extent frothy vaporings, and that nobody can count for a certainty what will be the result of the first dividing at Chicago. That delegations, as they have been trumpeted, are not fixities, is now evidenced by what is going on in Pennsylvania, New York, Illinois and other states. That the period of states voting as units has passed, is plain, except in a few instances. That there is a growing sobriety and earnestness infused into the canvass, and closer scrutiny of assumed facts, and a more comprehensive and serious consideration of the actual situation, is also plain to the observer. The present centres of gravitation are likely to be upset, and new centres substituted, to which new gravitations will tend.

That Mr. Sherman's strength will surprise those who have been opposing him, will undoubtedly be one of the prominent topics of conversation within the next twenty days in political circles. That fustian and gush will disappear, and their places taken by solid information, are the omens that are now gathering in the sky.

THE AMENDMENTS TO THE ROAD LAW, AND LABORER'S LEINS.

The Jarvis-Best session of the legislature indulged in a little legislation in regard to several acts of previous sessions to which the people were hostile. Among them was the road law. The purpose of the act of 1879, it must be admitted was proper and right. The roads all over the state were in a miserable condition owing to the defects in the old road laws. But that act operated with gross injustice upon a class of citizens. A taxpayer who paid only a poll tax, under it, was liable to be summoned to work on the highway 30 or 40 days, or even more, in a year, thus imposing on him a tax of $30 to $40. No grosser violation of the principle of equality of taxation was probably ever concocted. That law has by this act been so amended as to limit the service on the highways to six days to each individual, except in the emergency of storms, and ten days west of the Blue Ridge. It will be perceived the principle of inequality in taxes on roads is retained still toward the class of poll tax payers. But in this respect it is no worse than the general tax law for state revenue, which has hardly a vestige of the ad valorem principle in it. In fact the revenue system of this state has always been grossly unequal ever since North Carolina passed from the condition of a Colony to a State. It may with truth be said to be not much above, in equity, the forced loan system of Mexico and the other Latin races, and the systems of the Turkish empire.

The penalties of the act of 1879 remain as they were. The provisions of Section 5 of the new act, which relates to the keeping open of water courses, is certainly sufficiently remarkable to attract attention. If we read it aright it retains for the purpose of water courses, all the odious principles of the act of 1879. We quote the section:

SEC. 5. Such water courses as are now required by law to be kept open by the residents along such courses shall have overseers appointed and hands allotted to the parts of such water courses lying in their respective townships by the Board of Supervisors at the time and under the same regulations as is provided for public roads. Said water courses are to be kept open for the purpose of navigation, and only so many hands as are necessary for this purpose shall be allotted by the Boards of Supervisors, and work beyond what is necessary for the purpose of keeping such water course open for navigation shall be required of the overseers or hands.

Section 7 of the new law is as follows:

SEC. 7. The Board of Supervisors shall for this present year, hold their meeting in May, as now provided by law, and perform all the duties at such meetings now prescribed by law.

Exactly what is the effect of this section for the present year is not plain.

Section 8 of the law of 1880 is also a little peculiar. It is as follows:

SEC. 8. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act be, and the same are hereby repealed: Provided, Nothing in this act shall apply to the counties of Jackson, Macon, Clay, Cherokee, Graham, Swain, Haywood, Ashe, Transylvania, Alleghany, Mecklenburg, Watauga, McDowell, Forsythe, Yancey, Stokes, Henderson, Buncombe and Madison.

Then the act of 1880 provides that "the public roads of Forsythe and Stokes shall be worked exclusively under the act of 1879, Chap. 83 as amended at this special session, and all laws in conflict with this section are hereby repealed."

The "Laborers' Liens" law we give entire without comment, verbatim et literatim, and think it will be closely scrutinized by the class to whom it refers:

LABORERS' LIENS.

AN ACT TO GIVE TO SUB-CONTRACTORS, LABORERS AND MATERIAL MEN A LIEN FOR THEIR JUST DUES:

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That all sub-contractors, and laborers who are employed to or who furnish material for the building, repairing or altering any house or other improvement on real estate, shall have a lien thereon for the amount of such labor done or material furnished, which lien shall be preferred to the mechanics' lien now provided by law, when notice thereof shall be given as herein thereafter provided: Provided, that the sum total of all the liens due sub-contractors and material men shall not exceed the amount due the original contractor at the time of notice given.

SEC. 2. That any sub-contractor, laborer or material men, who claim a lien as provided in the preceding section, may give notice to the owners or lessee of the real estate who makes the contract for such building or improvement at any time before settlement with the contractor, and if the said owner or the said owner or lessee shall refuse or neglect to retain out of the amount due the said contractor under the contract as much as shall be due or claimed by the sub-contractor, laborer or material man, the sub-contractor, laborer or material man may proceed to enforce his lien as is now provided by law, and after such notice is given no payment to the contractor shall be a credit on or discharge of the lien herein provided for.

SEC. 3. That the provisions of chapter 53, laws 1876-'77, and the act of which said chapter is amendatory, shall be applicable to the enforcement of the lien herein provided, except wherein the same is herein otherwise provided.

SEC. 4. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Read three times in the General Assembly, and ratified this 29th day of March, A. D. 1880.

YES.

Will the Wilmington (N. C.) Post please give us credit for the miserable "Dits" it copies from this paper. We can stand the disgrace of being known as their author.—Kentucky State Journal.

Certainly. And here is one with which we begin, to prove our good intentions:

Although oleomargarine isn't butter, never was butter and never will be; isn't anything but grease, a Congressional Committee are greasily engaged in endeavoring to pass a law making it butter. And should they do so, it will still be grease, notwithstanding; and each member voting for the law should be tossed on the horns of outraged cows until they would confess it is grease, and nothing but grease.

This we take from the Journal, and it is sufficiently unique for credit. But right near it under the head of "Dits" is this:

Don't know after all but that policy is better honesty than a good deal of the latter we see on the stage of life just now.

Now this is a platitude which might be found anywhere this side of Aristotle or the Memorabilia of Xenophon, scattered around and gobbled up by all journaldom. There are certain items which become common property, according to newspaper etiquette. Apropos, in our younger and more brilliant days, we wrote a little squib entitled, under small caps, "The Reign of Rags," showing under what tyranny the rise of paper stock had put us. It floated all over the United States and was credited to something less than a thousand papers from Maine to Texas. This we thought rather rough literary piracy. Reminding the Journal that the fellow who does our scissoring shows his taste by appropriating his items, we respectfully submit these observations as the amende honorable.

THIRD CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

Meeting of the Republican Executive Committee.

FAYETTEVILLE, May 10, 1880.

The Republican Executive Committee of the Third Congressional District met at this place to-day at 11 o'clock. Capt. O. H. Blocker, Chairman, called the committee to order, and with the unanimous consent of the committee appointed Mr. J. S. Leary, of Cumberland, Secretary. The Secretary called the roll of the counties, all the members of the committee from the different counties present either in person or proxy with the exception of Moore county. The Chairman then announced that there was a quorum present, and that the committee was ready for the transaction of business. On motion the committee proceeded to the election of delegates and alternate delegates to the National Republican Convention to be held at Chicago on the 2nd day of June.

Col. O H. Blocker and G. W. Price Jr., were elected delegates, and Capt. W. M. Black and John S. Leary, E-q, alternate delegates. On motion of Mr. L. E. Rice a sub-committee consisting of five members of the committee were appointed by the Chairman on resolutions, who through the Chairman reported the following preambles and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS, It is considered by all judicious and patriotic citizens wise, when an appeal is to be made to the people in behalf of political principles which are calculated to contribute to the welfare of the body politic, to select candidates whose characters and qualifications render them such advocates and defenders of those principles as will command the approbation and respect of the constituencies, and,

WHEREAS, In making up the state and county tickets for the Republican party for the ensuing campaign, it is expedient to select men who most fairly represent the isterests of the state, and whose characters are such that their presence before the people will be their own defence, vindication and recommendation to the favor of the people.

Therefore be it resolved, That the Committee recommend to the Republicans of the state of North Carolina the Hon. RALPH P. BUXTON of Fayetteville as in all respects a suitable person to be put before the people as the Republican candidate for Governor at the ensuing election; one of the first citizens of this part of the state, having held many positions of public trust always with the approbation of those whom he served; a gentleman of rare qualities in all that constitutes a superior citizen; peculiarly fitted as an exponent and representative of this people both by education, experience, sympathy and natural capacities; if he shall be placed in the highest executive station within the gift of the people of North Carolina, he will add one of the most honored names to that list of eminent men, who have held its executive power.

On motion of G. W. Price, jr., the time for calling, and the place for holding the District Convention to nominate a candidate for Congress and Presidential Electors was left to the discretion of the Chairman of the Committee.

The Chairman was by a unanimous vote of the Committee requested to use every means in his power to have a thorough and effective organization of the party in the District.

After passing a vote of thanks to the the Chairman and Secretary, the Committe adjourned subject to the call of the Chairman.

SHARP WORDS

The Graphic has a way of striking the nail directly on the head, and of reasoning conclusively on the multum in parvo style. This summary of Sherman's claims is refreshing:

A person may think that Secretary Sherman would at this time make a more appropriate candidate for the Republican party than any other person without finding it needful to go out of his way to vilify any of his competitors. Secretary Sherman is connected with the advent of good times. He is the author of the resumption measures and the funding of the debt. When he took office everything was dark. The riots of the summer of 1877 showed how low the country had sunk. Capital was unemployed and unremunerative; labor was idle and restless. In some cases laborers were starving. During the three years that have since passed there has been a most marvelous change. There is no need to attempt to describe what the events were which brought about this change. They are known and read of all men. Suffice it to say that the name of Secretary Sherman is indissolubly connected with them. Grant's name was not more firmly knit up with the suppression of the rebellion and the reconstruction era than is Sherman's with resumption of specie payments and the advent of business prosperity.

From this point of view Sherman is the natural candidate of a party desirous of commending itself to public appreciation by the peace, happiness and prosperity of the present day, and not by the memories of doubt and disaster which for nearly five years pressed upon the country.

It is whispered around, says the Goldsboro Messenger, that the Republicans are talking of putting Treasurer Worth on their ticket. We guess not. The Rpublicans will put on their ticket as good a man for Treasurer as Dr. Worth is.

A GUEST OF THE NEW YORK CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

The Merchants' Annual Banquet—Toasts and Responses—Speech by Secretary Sherman—Flattering View of the Financial Situation—American Ships the Present Need of the Country.

THE FINANCIER AND THE MERCHANTS.

NEW YORK, May 11.—The annual banquet of the chamber of commerce was given at Delmonico's to-night. Covers were set for over 200 persons. The toasts were: "The President of the United States," "The State of New York," responded to by Noah Davis; "The City of New York," by Mayor Cooper; "The Financial Prosperity of Our Country," by John Sherman; Commerce," by Rev. R. S. Storrs; "International Contests," by Fernando Wood; "Religion: Its Relations to Commerce," by Rev. Dr. Collyer; "The Metropolitan Preis," by Isaac H. Bromley; "The Chamber of Commerce," by Seth Low.

SECRETARY SHERMAN'S SPEECH.

Secretary Sherman in his remarks said: "As your president has been kind enough to call on me to respond to a toast, I am happy to say I fully concur in the opinion expressed in it, that our country has entered upon a period of great prosperity. This may be tested in any way by which prosperity is indicated. Production in all branches of industry is greater than ever before. Our foreign commerce is increasing, with the balance largely in our favor. Our domestic commerce is so large that all modes of transportation by land and water are fully employed. Labor is fairly and profitably employed. Capital is hopeful and confident, and freely seeks new adventures. Great crowds of emigrants come to us to better their condition, while contributing to our wealth. Our population approaches fifty millions of people. The mineral resources of our country are greater than the wildest imaginings of a few years ago. Taxes that three years ago yielded barely enough revenue to meet current expenses, in March last yielded, without increase in rate, a surplus revenue of $14,000,000, in April $12,000,000, and will no doubt during the present year yield over $100,000,000. Our four per cent. bonds now sell at a higher rate than our six per cent. bonds averaged for a period of several years. I also congratulate you that we have now the nearest approach to a sound currency that we have ever had. I take it that you mean by a sound currency a mixed currency of both coin and paper. But few in our day would be willing to dispense with paper money. It is as necessary in modern commerce as bills of exchange and drafts, but it must always be redeemable and promptly redeemed. In this sense your paper money since January 1, 1879, has been a sound currency. I am one of those who believe a portion of this paper money can properly and profitably be issued by the government, but it should be carefully limited in amount and so guarded by coin reserves that it will be, without doubt or question, always maintained at par. And this paper dollar should have no false pretense about it. It should be what it purports to be, a promise to pay money, and nothing more, depending for its credit and value upon the sure and prompt fulfillment of that promise upon demand. We want no fiat money, but we want coin and paper money that rests upon the secured promise of the government, or of corporations, that it can be converted into coin when needed. All our coin should be of the market value. It may be of either gold or silver or both, but if of both, a dollar of either must contain enough grains to be equal in value to a dollar of the other. If a dollar in silver is not equal to a dollar in gold in market value, you must put more grains in the silver dollar, or less in the gold dollar. As a great commercial and creditor nation, we want the best and highest standard. There is one other branch of your toast to which I should allude, the enlargement of our agriculture, manufactures and ship building. You need not disturb yourselves about our agriculture and manufactures. No country in the world can vie with us in the production of food, in its cheap transportation and convenient facilities for shipment. In the production of cotton wool and the cheap articles of food, we need not fear the rivalry of any nation. Our manufactures have for the last ten years more than doubled. In one great industry alone we show our national weakness. We have lost our supremacy in building ships. Iron ships have driven from the sea the great body of American vessels. It is a reproach to us that three-quarters of our foreign commerce is conducted under foreign flags. To correct this should be the primary object of American statesmen and American merchants. Ship-building should be encouraged, and, if necessary, ships should be admitted like other foreign merchandise at such rates of duty and with such facilities as will enable us to compete for the trade of the world. The rapid changes made during the last few years have greatly advanced the building of iron ships in this country, if you can aid in promoting this great object you will complete the triumph of American industry. Then our agriculture, commerce and manufactures supporting each other and alike developing all industries, will make this great city the centre of international exchange."

ONSLOW.

At a meeting of the Republicans of Onslow county, held at Jacksonville the 11th day of May, 1880, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the State and County Conventions, E. B. Sanders and T. E. Gilman were appointed to the State Convention, and James Lauchlin and Robert Kinsy to the County Conventions.

Resolutions were adopted endorsing Judge R. P. Buxton for Governor, and W. P. Canaday for Congress, and the delegates were instructed to go for the same.

The Executive Committee appointed T. E. Gilman, C. E. Vose and Moses P. Hawkins.

A POOR WHITE SPEAKS.

[We print the following rather as a curiosity than as expressing correct opinions. But it doutless gives vent to the long pent up feelings of a class to which the writer belongs. It is so rare that their class have a chance to say anything to the public that we permit this man to speak as illustrating a phase of southern, or at least North Carolina politics. We have the man's name, and have no doubt but he represents a large class in the state, although we in no manner agree with his views.]

WAKE COUNTY, May 10, 1880.

EDITOR OF THE POST:

I am a white man and a North Carolinian and was in the war, but I am a poor man and have had nothing to do about bringing on the war, and owned no negroes and did not think I ought to fight for them being kept slaves. So you see I was easy to be a Republican when the war was over and ended according to my thoughts of what was right.

But then if the war was over there has been no peace yet. I could not be a Republican as I wanted to without having this same negro which I did not want to be a slave put over me as a manager of the party. I wanted to go along with and vote with you. Now I think the negroes are injuring themselves in asking to be put over us poor white men and men who would have sooner fought for the freedom than for the slavery of the negroes. But at the same time I will be honest to say I would not have fought in battle at all on this question of slavery if left alone.—But, Mr. Editor, these colored people dont stop to think any and they have been dring off us poor laboring men all the time. We dont want them over us no more than we want the old secessionists over us. We think they ought to be satisfied with equal rights in the law, and freedom without lording it over us poor whites who despise the Democratic party, our wost enemy.—But we don't want colored men to lead us. You editors are always making a big fuss about Mr. Honorable or Mr. Colored somebody who is a negro, and the poor working white man is nobody.

Now there is a big election this fall and the white man and colored people can carry the state and the legislature, but I will bet you will go on the same way with your paper, and negro will ask us to vote for them to go to the legislature, and you see we can't humble ourselves, though we want the Republicans to succeed, to put negroes over us to make laws for us when we know we have or ought to have as much sense as they have got.

We want to carry the state against the Democrats and vote for Sherman, that made the money of a laboring man as good as gold, which it never was before, and we want to vote for your man Buxton for Governor, because everybody says he is a good man. And we want to be Republicans all the time, and have a Republican legislature elected. But you will coax the negro politicians to go in and they will be candidates for the legislature in 15 or or 20 counties where white men have to vote for them and then the old Democrats come along and call us negroes, and cut us out of work and turn up their noses at our wives and daughters because we voted for negroes over them and us to make laws for us all in white counties.

Now if the colored people will hold off this time for office in the white counties, and vote for their friends, we can all unite and save this state at this election. We can elect the Governor and Mr. Sherman, and elect Mr. Martin again in the first district for Congress, and some colored man in the second district, and Mr. Cox some man who is not a [illegible]naday or third district, and I know we could elect Doctor Grissom [illegible]n this district. And maybe the nob[illegible]e Dockery in the other district west of Wilmington.—Now let us surrender in this campaign for the best. If the colored Republicans run too strong, though, for the legislature, especially in the counties where they are not in a large majority it will cut off enough votes to loose this state again. If this thing can be considered in time the state is safe.

Yours, MECHANIC.

The Thimble.

The name of this little instrument is said to have been derived from "thumb" and "bell," being at first thumble and afterward thimble. It is of Dutch invention, and was brought to England about the year 1695 by John Lofting, who commenced its manufacture at Islington, near London, and pursued it with great profit and success. Formerly iron and brass were used, but latterly steel, silver and gold have taken their places. In the ordinary manufacture thin plates of metal are introduced into a die, and then punched into shape. In Paris gold thimbles are manufactured to a large extent. Thin sheets of sheet-iron are disks of about two inches diameter. These, being heated red hot, are struck with a punch into a number of holes, gradually increasing in depth to give them the proper shape. The thimble is then trimmed, polished and indented round its outer surface with a number of little holes, by means of a small wheel.—Cape Fear Banner.

Illinois is in a muddle. It is now announced that the four delegates at large will be opposed to Grant, but that 10 or 11 of the delegates will be carried for Grant, with 8 or 9 against him.

THIRD TERM SMASHED IN ILLINOIS.

THE THIRD TERMERS' BOLT.

Consternation Among the Third Termers in New York—Excitement of the Supporters of the ex-President in Washington.

The third term faction of the Cook county convention, in which Chicago is situated, withdrew violently on the 10th from the convention met to elect delegates to Springfield to the state convention, which is to elect delegates to the Chicago Convention. The whole convention consisted of 191 and the bolting third termers numbered only 58.

The regular convention, anti-third term, proceeded to elect delegates to Springfield, and so did the 58 bolters.

The N. Y. Herald correspondence from which we take the news says:

This is practically one of the worst defeats that John A. Logan has experienced. He has from the first engineered the cause of the ex-President, and it was a matter of astounding surprise to him and his co-workers when it was ascertained that the Convention of to-day was made up of so large a majority as 50 for the Blaine-Washburne element. Of course no machine work could be done as against this superior machine, and the only recourse was to withdraw and trust to the future. The state has already selected about five hundred and ninety delegates to the State Convention, with about one hundred more to choose. It is estimated that at present the anti-third term forces have a majority of eighty-three state delegates.

At Albany the excitement at the explosion in Chicago was so great that little else was talked of. Senator Robertson, one of the N. Y. bolters from the third term, was the centre of attraction and was overwhelmed with congratulations. Trouble is anticipated in the N. Y. delegation to Chicago, and further bolting from the instruction vote for Grant by the Utica convention.

William E. Chandler of New Hampshire arrived at Albany on the night of the 10th, and said:

The break against the ex-President began over a week ago and is now going ahead all over the country. The immediate tendency of this break is from the ex-President to Blaine, and there is now no prospect for the ex-President obtaining the nomination.

Great anxiety is felt among the supporters of Grant in Washington. We quote again from the Herald:

The friends of the ex-President do not attempt to conceal their concern over the news of the bolt from the regular convention in the most important county of his own state. They are unable to see why the convention was not proceeding in a regular manner, and so they cannot defend their friends for refusing to abide by the decision of a majority. They seem to fear that this refusal will weaken the position which all of the supporters of the ex-President in Pennsylvania and New York are taking in regard to abiding by the will of the majority.

POLITICAL.

The Statesville American sensibly says: "We have expressed no decided opinion on the Presidential prospects because we have had none to express. Now, however, some things begin to appear pretty plainly. Our preference, as our readers must have seen, is for Sherman. But we have never been quite sure of his nomination, nor are we now. But we believe that his prospects are finally as good as those of any other man, and daily improving. But while we cannot say certainly who we believe will be nominated, we can say certainly who we think will not be nominated at Chicago, and that is Grant. From present indications the tide in his favor has begun to ebb, and ebbing fast."

One of the most careful thinking journals in the country is the Graphic, which belongs to no party, but is neutral in nothing. It says: "Looking over the whole field, it would seem as if the candidacy of Secretary Sherman would not only divide the Republican party less than that of any other person, but that when he was fairly before the people the prestige of his great and recent services would thoroughly unite the Republican party in his support, while at the same time persons not Republicans, but in favor of a continuation of the financial policy under which the country has so greatly prospered, would come out in his favor and work and vote for him."

The Norfolk Day Book has taken to itself a new life in more senses than one. It has difficult conditions to deal with, viz: bringing two elements which have heretofore been antagonistic to act together on one ticket. The Republicans and Readjusters of Norfolk can if they unite carry the city. The Day Book is fighting bravely on this line.

The office of District Attorney for the Western Judicial District, now held by the Hon. V. S. Lusk, becomes vacant about the first of June by the expiration of Mr. Lusk's term. The Ashville Journal says that the candidates pressed for appointment are: Mr. Lusk, of Ashville; Mr. McCorkle, of Salisbury; Mr. Barringer, of Charlotte; Mr. Everitt, of Forsyth county, and Mr. W. S. Ball of Greensboro.

That newspaper which seems to be incapable of telling the truth, the Times, on the 8th instant declared "Grant's unqualified victory in Maryland." Sherman, however, has eight of the fourteen delegates to Chicago from Maryland.

HALIFAX, N. C., May 13, 1880.

EDITOR WILMINGTON POST:

DEAR SIR:—Please permit me to say a few words in your paper in regard to the sentiments of the people of Halifax county. There seems to be more union among the Republicans of Halifax than there has been since 1868, and with Judge Buxton at the head of our state ticket, and John A. Moore as Attorney-General, and a man on the national ticket who will cause no bickering in our ranks, I believe that Halifax will pool a larger vote than she has since 1868. Our choice for President is the nominee of the Chicago Convention.

The municipal election here on Monday the 3d of May, was quiet. We elected a colored Board of Commissioners, with the exception of one man, with is a moderate Republican for Mayor.

We elected that brave and uncompromising Republican, R. J. Lewis, to the county convention, to be held at Halifax, June 19th, to select delegates to the district convention and to the state convention.

Yours, respectfully,

A LOOKER ON.

P. S. Please publish, and you shall not loose your reward, because the looker on will subscribe to your paper in a few weeks in order to keep posted.

BURGAW, N. C., May 12, 1880.

Republican county convention held at Burgaw May 8th. The convention called to order by A. Gamberg, Esq., chairman county executive committee, and afterwards made permanent chairman of the convention.

The regular routine of business, electing delegates, &c., gone through with, and the following resolutions offered and adopted:

We the Republican representatives of the people of Pender county in convention assembled do hereby resolve,

THAT WHEREAS, The Democratic party came into power through fraud and false pretense, and have almost destroyed local self-government in this and other states, and that their rule as an administration has been a failure to give satisfaction to a free and independent people;

Resolved, That we will send our best and purest men to the front as nominees of the Republican party, and that we will use our best endeavors to elect them:

Resolved, That all true Republicans discountenance all independent candidates or discussions in the Republican party.

Resolved, That our noble old patriot and the poor man's friend, W. P. Canaday, be endorsed by this convention as our next representative to Congress from this district, and the delegates are instructed to vote for him.

Resolved, That this Convention instruct their delegates to the state convention to support Judge Buxton for the nomination for Governor.

A. GAMBERG, C'mn.

W. E. COWAN, Sec'y.

Send in your address accompanied by $1 if you wish to have the POST.

STATE NEWS.

Cape Fear Banner: A turnip of the red-to species, measuring 17 inches in circumference and 5¼ inches across the top, the seed of which was sown the first day of January, has been laid upon our table by Mr. H. W. Plummer, of this town.

The Democratic Convention of the District will be held at Rockingham on the 9th of June. Col. William Johnson, of Charlotte, and Col. B. L. Bennett, of Anson, are announced as candidates. We suppose Col. Steele, the sitting member will also run, and we don't know who else.

John Spellman of the State Journal announces that he is laid up by a stiff case of the gout, fashionably called in these days inflamatory rheumatism, and that he is "editing under difficulties." But even under these difficulties John gets out about the most decent and readable newspaper in the state, and fights for Jarvis at sight, gout or no gout.

Col. John H. Wheeler, the historian, of Washington, D. C., drew $100 from the state treasury, for copying the addresses, messages and proclamations of Josiah Martin, the last of the royal Governors of North Carolina, from 1771 to 1781, from the public records of England, for the use of the Sate Library.

An old tom-cat in Alamance went into the oven of a cook-stove to sleep over night and somebody shut the oven door and built a fire in the stove.—Thomas all unconscious felt himself growing warm, then very hot, whereat he screamed, and being let out he smoked like a coal-pit, and now curves his back at all cook-stoves.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use thin hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The VIGOR cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair, The VIGOR is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.

JEWELRY

—) AND A (—

Solid Abysinian Gold Watch

FREE!

The above offer is genuine, although at first sight you would consider it impossible. We will explain: Since we first established our business here, March 1st, 1873, we have paid particular attention to the buying of Bankrupt and Auction Lots of Jewelry and Watches, often buying at as low as one-tenth their value, and in no instance have we paid over one-sixth the manufacturers' price. Since starting we have always been able to dispose of these goods in Chicago and through our regular customers throughout the country at nearly regular prices, as fast as we could procure them, but owing to the large number of failures among the heaviest dealers and manufacturers throughout this and other countries during the months of June, July and August (the time when the Jewelry business is stagnant), we have now on hand an immense stock of the most desirable goods we have ever handled, and which we have bought at lower prices than ever before. In order to dispose of this entire stock in the most speedy manner possible, and make room for new ones which we shall continue to buy, we have hit upon the following novel plan:

We propose to give you a list of the most desirable of these goods, giving opposite each article its regular retail value, and sell to you at the rate of Five Dollars' worth for $1 00. For instance, on receipt of 50 cts., we will send you, POSTPAID, any article to the value of $2.50; on receipt of $1.00 articles to the value of $5.00, and so on throughout the entire list. Below we give a list of the most valuable of these goods.

Read What the Chicago Press Say of Us, And Send In Your Orders.

The Sentinel, of Chicago, Sept. 8, says: "We call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of the Inventors' Agency, No. 116 E. Washington Street, Chicago. What the Inventors' Agency agrees to do, they will do. The Sentinel has advertised for the concern since its first publication, and we have yet to hear of the first complaint against it."

The Chicago Express, Sept. 3d, says: "The attention of readers is called to the advertisement of 'The Inventors' Agency,' office and rooms located at 116 Washington Street, Chicago. From personal inquiry and on the recommendation of the city press, we think our friends can do no better when wanting goods in that line. Give them a trial."

The American Stockman, Sept. 11th, says: "We believe this institution perfectly sound and responsible, and consequently persons need have no hesitation about sending for what they desire."

As to our responsibility we also refer you to the following firms: Blomgren Bros., 182 & 184 So. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.; Miller, Wagner & Umbdenstock, 119 So. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.
